CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 20, 1873.
The delegate from Doddridge, the Hon.
Samuel McMillan, Esq., who has immortalized himself this session by the introduction of resolutions, which, for profundity of wisdom, depth of thought, and concentrated quintessence of humor have couled on. concentrated quintessence of humor have probably never before been equaled on "this continent or adjoining islands," to-day "hesped Pelion upon Osea"—as Shakespeare has it—by the introduction of the following resolutions:

*Resolved, That fitting sheep for sale, by the continuous in the same of the following resolutions:

pampering, is fraudulent, for it is never avowed or admitted, and if it were, there can be no honest or decent excuse for a ctice which is directly and undeniably more readily when so pampered.

Resolved further, That the foregoing resolutions be respectfully referred to the Committee on Arts, Science and General Improvements, and that they report by Improvements, and that they report by bill or otherwise.

The appropriateness of the resolution to the important business now pending before the Legislature was at once appret to every well-belanced mind, yet the House, with that same stupidity which has heretofore characterized its failure to recognize "the coming man" in the Hon. Samuel, indefinitely postponed the further consideration of said resolution. But never mind, Samuel. The people of this State, and especially of Doddridge county, will recognize the meritorious ability of your efforts to subserve their best interests by the introduction. But never mind, Samuel. The people of this State, and especially of Doddridge county, will recognize the meritorious ability of your efforts to sub-serve their best interests by the introduction of your sheepish resolutions, even if your fellow-members, who envy the dis-tinction you are gaining, do not! No one that has read Byron but will recognize the appropriateness of the fol-lowing stanzas to the Hon. Samuel Mc-Millan, delegate from Doddridge county

"Star of the brave! whose beam hath shed Such glory o'er the quick and dead — Thou radiant and asored decest! Which millions rush'd in arms to greet, Wild meteor of immorial birth! Why rise in Heaven, to set on earth?"

WHEREAS, It is of the utmost impor-tance to the members of this House, be-fore casting their votes instructing their Representatives in Congress, to first know who the Executive of our State has issu-ed the certificate of election to, and recog-sizes as the legal representatives of the people to represent West Virginia in the next Congress of the United States; therefore therefore,

Resolved, That the Governor be respectfully requested to inform the members of this House, the names of the parties to whom he intends to issue, if not already issued, the certificate of election, and reissued, the cerumone or meeting, and for-cognizes as the legal representatives of the people to represent the Shite of West Virginia in the Congress of the United States, after the fourth of Massch, 1873. A Rising Star in the House of Del-

Mr. White objected to the considera-tion of said resolution and it went to the table. Mr. Knotts has tried once since to have it taken up, but failed. The resolution is evidently intended as a cut at Gov. Jacob, and is only one of the many ways the Camdentes have taken advan-tage of, to show their petty, malignant lage of, to show their petty, malignant spite against him.

The Supreme Court has made no permanent organization as yet, and I presume will not until Judge Hoffman, who is still confined to his room by sickness, is able to take his seat on the bench. Some of the candidates for the electricistic have become tred of waiting for a sum chance to get their hands into the public crib, and have left the field.

The corrected election case of Harrison is now being claborately argued—Judge Ferguson and Mr. Hogeman sppearing for Mr. Lewis, and Judge Brown, of this place, for Mr. Harrison. The opposition next.

The weather is very changeable; snow, rain, cold weather and sunshine alternating in such rapid succession that 'tis the exception to meet any one who is sufficiently free from a cold to speak intelligibly.

The good people of Doddridge county certainly have cause for congratulation in being so ably, (and frequently) represented in the Legislature. Who knows, but that if "Samuel" keeps on in this manner, the next President of the United. States may come from the county of Doddridge. Look out, ye who aspire to high political positions for greater things than that have happened.

The Federal Court adjourned to-day. Judge Jackson has been very busy, and has adjudicated a considerable number of cases, and in a manner generally sat-has adjudicated a considerable number of cases, and in a manner generally satisfactory to all. We shall miss your majestic voice very much in this lonely village, Judge. We shall also miss the hearty cordiality and genial manners of your Federal Attorney, Gen. Goft, and your always obliging, ever courteous Clerk, Jasper Y. Moore, Esq. May you have a safe journey back to the land of post offices and daily mails.

We have been without any western mail since Friday last, and no prospect of getting any soon. How long, O Lord, how long, must this state of things continue.

CREDIT MOBILIER.-A corresponden asks us to define the term Credit Mobil-ier. Its definition is strictly personal credit, and when applied to a company means one which invests capital in perpractice which is directly and undeniably and have left the field.

The contested election case of Harrison Resolved further. That we have no right to poison what we sell, because we know there will be fools to buy it, and to buy it more readily when so pampered.

The contested election case of Harrison means one which invests capital in personal property as distinguished from a credit foncier, where the investment is in effort to quash the proceeding because was an effort to quash the proceeding because it is motion. The great French Credit Mobiller insufficiency of notice, and uses a property as distinguished from a credit, and when applied to a company means one which invests capital in personal property as distinguished from a first to quash the proceeding because was an effect to a company in the contested election case of Harrison credit, and when applied to a company means one which invests capital in personal property as distinguished from a first to quash the proceeding because was an effect to a company of the first to quash the proceeding because was an effect to a company of the proceeding because was an effect to quash the proceeding because was created, under government sanction, for the purpose of investing capital in banking, in contracts for works of public improvements, in stocks and other personal property. It is a joint stock company with a large capital, and for years did a large and profitable business, which of late has fallen off. The name and object of the American Credit Mobilier had this origin, though its business, so far as we know, has been confined to contracts we know, has been confined to contracts with the Union Pacific Railroad Com-paby. A French writer said of the French Credit Mobilier that It was the
